

Improving Lives Through Research

Showcase your research!

Are you a student who has done some research? If so, you are invited to take part in Improving Lives Through Research, a student research showcase hosted by Bristol SU on 29th May. Submit a proposal to present your work as a poster and share your ideas, findings, and impact with a wider audience. This event is an opportunity to communicate, collaborate, and celebrate student-led research that is improving lives locally and globally.
